Courses in red are not available online.

This option will prepare students to understand the variables that impact businesses in an international arena, and demonstrate an appreciation of what is required of a business to compete and survive in the global marketplace. The option prepares students to transfer to four-year baccalaureate business programs with an international concentration. Upon graduating from the program, students will appreciate the significance of a global marketplace impacted by diverse cultural, political and legal environments. Students also will be able to interpret accounting data, analyze financial statements and solve complex accounting scenarios, apply the marketing concept, appreciate the role of law in business, define traditional functions of management and their contribution to strategic planning and calculate and quantify data to make business decisions.
